The New Chrysostom: Bishop Nikolaj Velimirovic NEWC $14.99

"Thirty years have passed since Bishop Nikolaj departed from this world to a much better one, to God's eternal world. Long before, however, this great man from Lelich, the Bishop of Ohrid and Zhicha of blessed repose, was rightfully known as our New Chrysostom.

"On this thirtieth anniversary of his repose, it is my pleasure to reveal some more facts about him than are generally known by the people or Lelich in particular, the Serbian people in general, and by the Orthodox and Christian world at large. I am aware of my modest means in contrast to the complexities and greatness of the person and works of Bishop Nikolaj. However, as his closest compatriot and neighbor, I will attempt to present his evangelical life and his varied and prolific pastoral work, beginning with his birth in Lelich in 1880 and ending with his blessed repose in America in 1956" —Bishop Artemije

The Universe as Symbols and Signs: An Essay on Mysticism in the Eastern Church 1878997904 $12.99

"Many people in the West think of the mysticism of Eastern Christianity as something unreal and imaginary, yea as dreamy and vague thinking in the clouds. I am trying in the following pages to prove the contrary to that opinion. "Our Christian mysticism is wholly different from Buddhistic mysticism, just as much from modern materialism. It is a vision of realities beyond and through transparent symbols and signs of the material universe. This is one of the fundamental teachings of our ancient Church of Christ, based upon the Bible and the Fathers..." (From the back cover, written by Saint Nikolai D. Velimirovich. 85 pages.

This volume includes: The Divine Liturgy of St. John Chrysostom, The Divine Liturgy of St. Basil the Great and The Liturgy of the Presanctified Gifts. Originally published in 1984 as 2 volumes, this revised reprinting includes all three complete liturgies in one volume. There is no longer the need to skip around! Additionally, the revision brings these books in line with Revised Liturgical English (RLE), developed here at St. Tikhon's Seminary and Monastery as a dignified English setting for the services that is both easy to understand yet not a concession to contemporary English as has been tried in earlier translations. RLE is used in all our publications of service books and prayer books from at least 2008 onward. For those linguistically inclined, this means that the language herein is consistent with our Apostol, our Morning and Evening prayer books, and the Great Book of Needs. Also included are Prayers Before and After Communion, Special Hymns, Verses and Antiphons for the Festal and Paschal Cycle, Dismissals for the Year, and a Monthly Calendar of Saints. Hard cover.

Insightful and Inspiring Spiritual Works

by Archimandrite Zacharias

Disciple of Elder Sophrony

"The writings of Archimandrite Zacharias evince that inspiration which is born of the undistorted vision of Christ in glory."

—Dr. Christopher Veniamin, Professor of Patristics, Saint Tikhon's Seminary, USA

Remember Thy First Love 9780980020724 $27.95 NEW!

Remember Thy First Love is a graphic description of the three stages in the Christian life according to Elder Sophrony of Essex (1896 1993), disciple of St. Silouan the Athonite (1866 1938) and founder of the Patriarchal and Stavropegic Monastery of St. John the Baptist in Essex, England. In Remember Thy First Love, which complements The Enlargement of the Heart (2006) and The Hidden Man of the Heart (2008), Elder Zacharias details the nature and purpose of the first grace given at the beginning of the Christian spiritual odyssey, the experience of the apparent withdrawal of grace, and then our final adoption as children, by which we become heirs of God and joint-heirs of Christ (cf. Rom. 8:17). Softcover. 463 pages.

The Enlargement of the Heart is an astoundingly majestic presentation of the nature and purpose of human existence in two of the most important figures in contemporary Orthodoxy: St. Silouan the Athonite (1866-1938) and Elder Sophrony of Essex (1896-1993). Delivered in Wichita, Kansas at the 2001 Clergy Brotherhood Retreat of the Antiochian Orthodox Christian Church, each lecture is published here in full together with its Asides and corresponding Questions & Answers. The author is a disciple of the Elder Sophrony and a member of the Monastery of St. John the Baptist, England. Softcover. 244 pages.

*Christ, Our Way and Our Life: A Presentation of the Theology of Archimandrite Sophrony 9781878997746 $22.95

"The central axis of his (Fr. Sophrony's) living theology is his deep investigation into the meaning of the personal or hypostatic principle in Divine Being and in humanity. St. Silouan and his disciple and biographer Archimandrite Sophrony deserve a place in the history of the Church. The present study aims to establish the spiritual experience of these two men as a subject worthy of consideration in the academic circles of contemporary theology." —Archimandrite Zacharias. Softcover. 275 pages.
